Former theater alumni and current Centennial Theater students (participants do not have to be Centennial students, all are welcome) will perform together for a summer show based on a Shakespeare production (production to be determined).

All ages are welcome from 6th grade to adult. If you are nervous about Shakespeare, each play will have non-speaking and speaking roles so don't feel intimidated.

Tech crew will also be needed: lights, sound, props, and costuming. Participants can register as actors or tech crew.
